

Ann McCulloch Carver

February 9, 1937 - January 10, 2019

Adah “Ann” McCulloch Carver, 81, died peacefully on January 10, 2019 at her home in Newnan, Georgia surrounded by loved ones. Born February 9, 1937 in Piqua, Ohio to the late Congressman and Mrs. William M. McCulloch. She graduated with honors from The Holton Arms School in Washington D.C., and Denison University in Granville, Ohio. She is survived by her husband of 58 years David Benson Carver, daughter, Elizabeth Wright Carver and her fiancé Alexander Holmes, daughter, Sarah Carver Lim and her husband Dennis, a granddaughter, Isabella Ann Lim and a sister, Nancy Jane McCulloch.

Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.mckoon.com.

Ann’s life was distinguished by her life-long commitment to serving others. She was an active member of the Episcopal Church, serving on the Vestry of several parishes including St. Francis Episcopal Church in Potomac, Maryland and St. John’s in York, Pennsylvania. Ann was a dedicated and hardworking volunteer for the Daughters of The American Revolution, the Republican Party, and countless other organizations. She served as one of the six founding trustees of St. Andrews Episcopal School, Potomac, Maryland which celebrates its 40th anniversary this year.

Under Ann’s leadership as Executive Director of United Cerebral Palsy of South Central Pennsylvania, headquartered in Hanover, Pennsylvania, the organization grew from a staff of 7 in a small rented space, to the construction of its own state of the art facility with a staff of over 100. The organization serves infants and children with special needs in four facilities in three counties in south central Pennsylvania. Ann was a gourmet cook and avid gardener. She loved French Poodles of which she had four, the first of which she received as a wedding present.

A Memorial service will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church, Troy, Ohio at 3:30 PM on Saturday, February 23, 2019. Immediately following the service, a reception for all in attendance will be held at the Troy Country Club, Troy, Ohio. Burial of her ashes will be private in the Carver lot in Riverside Cemetery, Troy, Ohio.

McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory (770) 253-4580.

Events

FEB Service 03:30PM

23

Trinity Episcopal Church

Troy, OH, US

Comments

“ We share your loss of Ann. She is well remembered in our Col James Smith-Yorktown DAR in York, PA. Not only as the last regent of Yorktown before the merger, but as an active member throughout her time in York. Our sympathy to all her family. Ann Marks, Chaplain, Col James Smith-Yorktown DAR.

Ann Marks - February 27 at 10:47 AM

“ Country Basket Blooms was purchased for the family of Ann McCulloch Carver.

February 15 at 03:56 PM

“ I was honored to serve in the DAR with Ann. Please feel free to contact me at mssyork@aol.com

Mrs. Mary Skold

Mary Skold - February 11 at 01:34 PM

“ Ann was a very personal friend of mine. David and her were customers of mine at Central Market in York, PA. They shared breakfast any time they could at my stand. It comes with great sadness hearing of her passing. My condolences to the family. SHE WILL BE MISSED.
Mike Murphy and wife Lori.

michael murphy - January 26 at 09:43 AM

“ To David and family from Carol Schintz
It was a pleasure to have Ann and you as neighbors in DownTown East.
We miss you still. My condolences. With Love Carol

CAROL SCHINTZ - January 24 at 10:36 AM

“ Dear Family Members,

I was saddened to read of the passing of Ann in the Piqua Daily Call. I send my condolences to all of you as I lift you up in prayer to the ONE who is most able to comfort you in this hour of grief and bereavement.

While I had only met her on a couple of occasions, I will forever hold dear her memory and the family presence in Piqua while paying tribute to her father, William Moore McCulloch.

May GOD'S blessings be upon you.

Larry Hamilton

The Randolph & McCulloch Freedom's Struggle Complex

Larry Hamilton - January 24 at 07:59 AM

“ David and family,

Our heartfelt condolences for the loss of Ann. May your wonderful memories carry you through your time of grieving.

Chris and Alison Vedder

Alison Vedder - January 23 at 02:58 PM

“ Dear David

Please accept our most sincere and deepest sympathy to you and the family on your loss.

Ann's accomplishments and contributions were notable, greatly appreciated, and so very special for our community during the years you lived here in Central Pennsylvania.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.....

Very best wishes

Kathy and Tighe King

Tighe King - January 23 at 11:32 AM

“ David and family, our heartfelt condolences. We have fond memories of Ann and you, including both of your service to St. John and the York community. Living in East York, we think of you all often as we drive by your home on east Market Street. God's Peace. Milton and Susan

Milton Leake - January 23 at 09:51 AM

“ I had the honor of working under Ann at UCP in the York, PA office for 10 years. She was a remarkable mentor who taught me many lessons about the workplace that I still use today. Her stories about growing up were always a treat to listen to. I am blessed that I knew Ann. My condolences to the family.
Kimberly Alloway

Kimberly Alloway - January 23 at 06:23 AM