Joyce was like a second mother to me. She was like family . She made me feel loved. I always sung happy birthday to her. She always got a kick out of that. She will be missed. The family will always be in my prayers. The family is very special to me.

We are so sorry to hear of the death of your mother. Beth called to let us know while we were in Alabama. She and I had such fun while we were in arobics. We used to sit by your pool just enjoying each others company. I will miss her. Sandra Blair

Hello, I worked with Joyce from 1997 until she retired. She was always smiling and happy even when she had her hands full. She always enjoyed each day regardless of what it brought her way. I called her on her last birthday and we talked for about an our. She still sounded very happy and up beat about life and was telling be about all her Grand Kids. I know all the Grand Kids will miss her, but she is with her Johnny again and I know she is happy because she loved her Johnny. My condolences to all. Rest in Peace Joyce.
