

Cindy Darlene Williams

September 28, 1953 - May 4, 2021

Cindy Darlene Williams, aged 67, peacefully completed her life journey, after a long battle with cancer, on May 4th, 2021 at home in Newnan, Georgia.

Born on September 28th, 1953 in Atlanta, Georgia, to Bobby Randall Atcheson and Betty Jane Middlebrook. She is survived by her girls Jaycee Anderson, Jenafer Courtney Watts, Aubrey Elaine Atcheson, Emily Ruth Williams with husband Rafal Wosio, and Rebecca Jane Lovelace Gott with husband Adam Gott; grandchildren: Alex Hanus, Stephen Bowen, Sara Gibson, Joy Marich, Samantha Watkins, Adelaide and Anders Tolley, and Caleb Gott; great-grandchild: Dakota Watkins; siblings: Ann Smallwood, Tommy Atcheson, June Wrigley, Tammy Rodriguez, and Myles Brooklyn (Jody Atcheson).

Cindy is preceded in death by her parents, sister Bobby Jane Hopper, and brothers Richard, Randall, and Michael Atcheson.

Mom spent her time dancing around the house while cleaning with the music blaring, hunting for treasure at the nearest yard sales, playing in the dirt, traveling the country for long visits with her children and friends, attending the births of every grandchild, and congregating with her fellow church members. She almost never missed an opportunity to curl up with a good book and some cookies with hot tea. She was claimed as a second parent by some and regarded to be the kindest, warmest, most gentle woman, making all those who came into contact with her feel like they were family. Cindy always accommodated the wishes, desires, and needs of others before her own were ever met. This is reflected in how she is remembered by all.

“ For a few years, during my childhood in the 80's, I was blessed to be able to call Cindy one of my "other mothers," due to my friendship with Jaycee, (who is excellent liker her mother!). I have only lovely memories of Cindy. I remember her as one of the most feminine, youthful, easy-going women I've ever met. She was so kind, welcoming, & non-judgemental to me in those sensitive pre-teen & teen formative years...always making me feel so at home in her presence. One funny (maybe only to me) & endearing memory, that stands out to me, is that of her noticing the time (many a time when I was visiting at her apartment home), & rushing to make sure she vacuumed & made carpet tracks in the carpet because her husband liked it that way & would be home soon. She set a wonderful example of putting your husband & children's needs (& likes) as a top priority. I can remember that I applied her example in my own marriage, along with things I learned from my mom. She made a lasting mark in so many lives!...a woman easy to love & adore.
