“ I worked with Don many years ago at NB Handy Co. We kept in touch through out the years until work and family kept us both busy and we went our separate ways. Don recently let me know he was ill which really saddened me. Through out the years Don was a great friend and mentor. He had a great sense of humor. Don often spoke about his family. I know he loved them dearly. Don will be missed. I offer my sincere condolences to his family.

“ Don was a great person & he sure did love his barber shop. I am so happy to have spent the years that I did working for him and with the ones I called my “shop family.” I will always remember him by his funny sense of humor and the way he cared for those around him. I am praying for the family during this tough time, but also reminding those that through Jesus, we will ALL be reunited again some day.
