“ The fondest memory I have of Jerry was when we first met him. There were several men from church sitting together. My son Benjamin was a little over 1 year old. He was walking around in front of them but it was Jerry he chose and ended up in Jerry's lap. It was the kind look in Jerry's eyes that I remember and Bens good choice of men.

Jerry was someone who helped people but no one would know except people told about his good deed.

The other memory, is Jerry loved Edna very much. He was always giving her gifts but the orchid given on Easter was a tradition. They held hands in church and Jerry in his own way reflected his love and concern for Ednas well being. He will be missed at Christ our Savior. He was a faithful child of God.

“ As Pastor Emeritus of Christ Our Savior, I was privileged to have Jerry as an elder of the church, who was willing to serve and help out the church and its members any way he could. He was a true child of God, a faithful Christian, with a deep trust and hope in His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Pastor Larry Townsend

Jerry was a quiet, unassuming kind of guy, with a gentle strength about him. I remember when he and Edna had Larry and me over for lunch not long after we moved her and Larry became pastor of Christ our Savior. When Jerry found out we had a wood-burning fireplace, he insisted on giving us two of his trees that he had cut down and cut up, and cured. Every other Sunday, he would show up at church with a trunkload of wood for us, which we would take home in our minivan. We burned it all up over the next few years. We always appreciated that gesture. He showed the love of His Savior in such a gentle way. Bonnie Townsend

“ I have known Jerry since I joined Christ Our Savior Lutheran Church back in 2009. I had just joined and there was a terrible storm in or area. Power outages, trees down ect.....The phone rang and it was Jerry, he explained that I had been assigned to him, and that he was my elder. He said that the church was ready to help if we needed anything and he just wanted to make sure that my family was safe. I was so impressed. I had been a church member for a lot of years, and nothing like that had ever happened to me before. Jerry had the fruits of the Spirit, love, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Galatians 5: 22-23. A good Christian man, husband, father, brother, church member, and elder. I will miss him ! Nancy Peace

“ Carol and I have known Jerry and Edna for over 40 years. Some of my fondest memories date back to watching Jerry cut wood in our days of moving Holy Cross from Jonesboro to Riverdale on Valley Hill Road. We had the privilege of going out for dinner with Jerry and Edna on an annual basis while we were at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, and those were always delightful occasions. Like Edna, Jerry exhibited a simple, pure, childlike faith in Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Our condolences to their dear son Scott, a wonderful child of God in the years that we knew him in Jonesboro, as he deals with his loss, and heaven's gain. Scott, I believe you are in my eight millimeter Vacation Bible School film from back in the late 70s or early 80s. God bless you! Jim & Carol Martin

“ I have known Jerry for just over 10 years since Eric and I first came to Christ Our Savior. He was an elder in 2009 and we had barely visited the church. We had expressed an interest in membership. Jerry called me the very night before I was to have back surgery, identified himself as an elder and prayed for me during that phone call. Jerry endeared himself with me that evening and I will forever remember that kindness. After we became members Jerry always asked about our family, the birth of grandchildren, friends that we requested prayers for. He even followed our son's stats when Dan played for college. Jerry was a kind and gracious man. He will be missed by all of us. Rest in the Savior, oh good and faithful servant. Jan Andersen

“ I first met Jerry and Edna at Holy Cross, and my late husband, Arthur knew and worked with Jerry at Delta Airlines for a bit. We really enjoyed knowing and being friends with them both for many years. Arthur and Jerry worked many years keeping up the grounds at church with other hardworking men and women through the yrs at Holy Cross while we were members there. Jerry was won of the nicest and hard working men I knew. If anyone needing anything done at all ,he would be there, he was most dependable. Always smiling and had a good word to say about everyone. He truly was a good Christian, and a really good man. We truly thought a lot of Jerry and are so sorry for his loss to Edna and to Scott and Jerrys sister. Prayers for all who are grieving. Jerry will be miss here on earth, but we will all meet again one day soon.

“ Jerry was a quiet man and we never heard him say a cross word. He had a heart of gold. Being his friend all these years has been a blessing. We will certainly miss him.

“ It's twice as sad for us because his beloved wife, Edna is in the hospital and could not be with him to give him comfort at the end. But knowing he is with the Lord helps to make up for the pain and suffering he endured and the hurt that we feel in losing him. He was our friend for 40 years and we will never forget his quiet, unassuming ways or his generous, tender heart. He was a man of few words but his mind and heart were always in the right place. We love you Jerry. Edna, hopefully you will be able to read this one day soon-- please know we pray for you daily and will be here for you. Scott, you were a good son and we love you. May the peace of our Lord and Savior be with you always.
