“ To My Loving Brother, John David Wright,

I Love You and Miss You more than words can describe!

As I attempt to write this tribute to you, it is exceedingly difficult for me to find the right words that will give you the “Honor” and “Dignity” you sooooo... greatly deserve!

While I have no doubt that you were ushered into the assembly of “The Most High” and are no longer suffering, your too soon departure has left me and many others with an indescribable emptiness accompanied with pain and sorrow deep within our soul!

You were the “Best Brother” I could have ever hoped or asked for. Throughout my lifetime, you were ALWAYS there for me whenever I needed you. Whether it was for advice, wisdom or simply to lend me an ear as I babbled on, you were my one Go-to Person, “My Lifeline”.

You my brother certainly "left your mark" on this world and established a profound legacy that will live on in the many lives of those that were fortunate enough to have known you.

Your steadfast character traits were many...

You were a "Man of Your Word", Faithful, Trustworthy and Dependable. Everyone that had a personal relationship with you knew you could absolutely be counted on to do exactly what you said!

You honorably fulfilled your responsibilities as a Father, Brother, Son, Husband and Friend, ALWAYS placing the needs of others ahead of yourself!

You were truly "100 Percent Authentic", (the proverbial “Real McCoy”), NEVER fake or with a hidden agenda.

Without a doubt, you were a “Fierce Friend” and oh how you loved your friends! From your perspective, friends weren’t just friends, they were “FAMILY”! Those that were lucky enough to be counted on your long list of friends knew there wasn’t anything you wouldn’t do for them.

I know you’re in Heaven now with Jesus (absent from the body, present with the Lord) and have been reunited with our Brother James and Mom & Dad.

When my time on earth comes to an end, I hope and pray that God’s grace will grant me entrance into His Kingdom so I too can be reunited with you and our family!

I Love You David and will forever carry your memory in my heart!

As I close, I'll borrow one of your many noteworthy sayings: "In a minute"!!

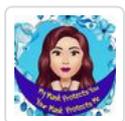

“ Sometimes it difficult to say something meaningful when someone has passed. For David, who was my best hunting buddy, I know one thing and this is the truth; Some time ago while we were hunting in our favorite hunting spot in northern Colorado, one evening he said that he had the most profound experience that he has ever had. He was walking up what we called Indian peak, and at the top was a Ute Indian who asked him where his canoe was? David said, "what canoe?". The Ute looked at him and said "the canoe you need to get to the other side".
I believe that David did find his canoe is enjoying every bit of the trip he is on now.
God bless you David.

“ Our deepest sympathy...you are in our prayers.
We remember your joy at finding each other in a place as large as the world can be, you truly were right for each other.

“ Papa was a well-mannered guy who was a huge part of my healing from my childhood issues. He was the first man I could trust.
He had also had a strict code of honor that he would not break. He was hardworking, honest, and kind. He had a strong respect for women, and he would threaten to punch you in the nose if you used profanity around females. He proved to me that chivalry was not “dead,” even in modern times. A lot of people have said that Papa was born a century too late. He was a family man and believed in old fashioned family values.

People say that grief is, “love with nowhere to go.” I love you, Papa.
