“ Kathy Duke is a gracious and giving soul, and I believe those qualities are at the core of her spirit. When I met her daughter, Terri, I was in early elementary school, so I knew Kathy when I was a child, teen-ager, and adult. As a child, I saw Kathy as a mother figure; caring and always willing to share her home. As a teenager, I remember sitting and talking with Kathy at the kitchen table on tall, bar stools. I witnessed the closeness she shared with all her children, and I always knew my secrets were safe with her. As an adult, she let me know she was thinking of me whenever she sent out annual Christmas cards. While there were fewer visits, those moments were filled with pictures, silly jokes, and stories to catch us up. I know that Kathy is proud of her children. Kathy loves her children (including grands and great-grands) so much and they continue to live out her legacy. Truly, Bruce will always have his mother's wit and sense of lightheartedness. Barbara carries out her mom's strong ability to love and care for others. Terri's strength and certainty about life is a constant reminder that her mother continues to be the wind beneath her wings! Fly high, Kathy, knowing you are loved and remembered fondly on this
