“ Alan, Anna, & Aimee,

I pray all of these remembrances of your wife and mother will comfort you and remind you often of what a gracious and loving person God placed in your life. She is gone from this earth too soon, but I hope you are feeling an outpouring of love and support during this time - and resting in the knowledge that she is free from pain and you WILL be with her again.

Lisa and I began homeschooling our children around the same time. I got to know her through a homeschool co-op (where she was VERY patient with my rambunctious little guy!), and had the pleasure of being in a Bible study with her and then doing various homeschooling things with her through the years.

Wherever we were, Lisa was always helping, encouraging, and organizing! She was a gracious hostess - I remember going to her home for a Bible study and we had wonderful homemade desserts and everything was just SO!

She was an angel on earth, and I know you will miss her so very much. My prayers are with all of you.

“ I am heartbroken and without words. There are a million things I want to say but I just cannot figure out how to say them. This is a shocking and devastating loss that cannot adequately be put into words. I loved Lisa. She was my friend most of our adult lives. I spoke to her when she was first admitted to the hospital...and never ever dreamed it would be the last time. I am praying for peace and understanding for Alan, the girls and the rest of her family.

“ When I began teaching at age 40, I taught second grade my first year at Canongate Elementary. Lisa was my amazing mentor. She was patient, encouraging, and kind and set a positive example. Lisa was one of the most well organized teachers I have ever known, and her classroom and her home were always immaculate with everything in its place. She, Lolita, Leslie, Jan and I became close friends and enjoyed trips to the beach together with our husbands where music and laughter abounded. I met Lisa, Anna, Aimee, and a friend of theirs for lunch near my home the summer before COVID, and I will treasure that last memory of spending time with her always. Lisa loved Alan and her girls, and she was a good friend. I loved her and she will always have a special place in my heart. She will be missed, and Roy and I take comfort knowing we will see her some day in our heavenly home. May God bless and comfort Alan, their girls, and all who knew and loved her.

“ Alan, Anna, Aimee, and Tim, My heart just breaks for you all. Lisa was such a wonderful person. She was a wonderful teacher as well. She and I have so many memories from our college days. We both moved to Augusta, GA to begin our teaching careers and lived together in an apartment for several years. I just can't believe that she is now in heaven. This has really been hard for me. We didn't get to see each other very often but we remained friends all of these years and talked often over the phone. We always sent pictures at Christmas of our babies and now that I have grandchildren i always sent their pictures. Sometimes we don't understand God's plan but we just have to trust him in his decision. Please know that I am praying for your family and I have others praying as well. I will truly miss her and our weekly chats. God Bless you all during this most difficult time. Rest in Peace my dear friend Lisa. I can't believe you have gone way too soon and way too young. I will always love you.

“ What a precious lady! I met Lisa at White Oak Elementary when Anna was a student there and realized that we also attend Crossroads Church. I am so very sorry for your sudden loss. My prayers are for all of her family and those who loved her so.... especially her sweet husband Alan and their precious girls.

“ Lisa was my very first 'teacher' friend when I moved to Georgia in 1988. We taught 2nd grade together at Grantville. Becoming fast friends we took girl trips together and shared a million and one laughs. Over the last 30+ years we knew each other was only a phone call away and could ask each other anything.....no matter how private or confidential. I don't know who I will call now for some down to earth advice or just a chance to laugh at ourselves. Thank you Lisa for being that friend that could always be counted on for anything and everything. You are sorely missed and loved but you will never be forgotten my friend.
