“ I'm so sorry for Ron's family and friends in this great loss. I grew up knowing Ron my whole childhood, hanging out with the older kids thanks to my sisters that were about his age, going to eat after church. Then he became my Bible teacher, and I enjoyed his humor and his easygoing way. When I was editor of the annual at our school, he was my advisor, but he only wanted to do the sports pages and trusted me with the rest, which I so appreciated and helped build a little self-esteem. I know he will be greatly missed, but I am sure his mama is happy to have him with her.

“ I knew Ron McCurry as Pastor Ron, Coach Ron, and just plain Ron. He was all these things for me in my life. He was my basketball coach in high school. He was my pastor, my employer, and the man who married me and my wife. For almost twenty years, my life brought me into daily interactions with him. Due to my father and mother being full time ministers at HCS, I not only knew him at Heritage, but at the lake and at his home. The strangeness of hearing of his passing will not go away for some time. It's hard to believe when I'm in Newnan, I won't see him and Pam out shopping, or I won't be able to stop by their table at La Hacienda and talk about Georgia Tech. I will never forget his knowing smile, fast wit, and handshake that always came with him saying, "excuse my wart". Pam, Josh, Andrea, you are in mine and Erin's prayers. I ache for your loss of this man, whom I knew in so many ways, but in the end came to be known as a friend for me. I cherish those memories and am thankful for every moment that was given.
Peace be upon you in this time of loss.

“ Dear Pam. Bro. Bob and family, be assured that our prayers are with all of you at this terrible time in your lives. We loved Bro. Ron with all of our hearts and we know that he loved us. I always enjoyed calling him on his birthday. I never knew him to be anything but happy in the Lord. He was a loving servant of Christ. Phil. 1:21 - "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

“ As certain as death is, it's a enigma why it often takes us by surprise. Ron's passing has truly surprised me. He and I labored, studied, sang, and worshipped together for over thirty years in the service of our good savior. Our association wasn't merely occasional; it was week-long, year-round. I knew his family, working with Pam, teaching Josh, Matt, and Andrea. I have an ache in my hip to this day that reminds me of my wrestling matches with Matt.

I haven't seen much of the McCurrys in recent years, but we did have one extraordinary encounter about three years ago: I was taking a stroll through Muir Woods - the redwood national forest north of San Francisco - when I heard someone call my name. I turned to see Ron, Pam, and Josh. To quote Josh: "What are the chances!"

Ron's passing leaves a sad hollowness in my heart, and I know that Pam, his children, dad, brother, and others are having to brave one of the saddest seasons of their lives. Nevertheless, scripture reminds us that when we're left "alone" in the wake of a loved one's death, Jesus is forever present with us. He will never leave or forsake us. When the unanswerable question "Why?" stalks us, there is an answer: God is too good to do wrong and too wise to make a mistake.

McCurrys, Mary and I pledge to lift you up in our prayers, asking God to give you grace to know Jesus' comfort and cast your burdens upon him.

“ Dear Pam and family,
We are so sorry for the loss. Words are not enough to express our sincere condolences. We know Ron is now truly in "God's country"! He always teased us about being in God's country, and now he's truly home in the arms of his Savior. I know you are grieving, but so thankful this is not the end of the story. Praising God we will all be in "God's country" one glorious day! Our prayers are with you and your family. Hugs from PA.
