

Aaron Devlin Brown

October 16, 1981 - February 28, 2021

Aaron Devlin Brown, born on October 16, 1981 to Wendy Perniciaro and Marvin Brown, passed away on February 28, 2021.

Aaron was a caring and loving man who adored his family. He had a huge heart, and he had compassion and empathy for others. Aaron had a passion for drawing, and he loved history and architecture. He loved studying the various cultures, religions, and traditions of other countries. He had the opportunity to travel to Europe, and he returned with a newfound love and genuine appreciation of the beautiful world around him.

After his graduation from Donaldsonville High School, Aaron earned his Bachelor's Degree from Nichols State University, and he later attended Life University from 2011-2013.

Aaron is survived by Wendy Perniciaro, Marvin and Leslie Brown, Josh and Chelsie Lovell, Beverly, Jay, Jordan, and Brittany Perniciaro, Whitney Jennings and his beloved aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate any donations to be made on Aaron's behalf to the San Francisco Food Bank. The mission of this organization is to end hunger in San Francisco and Marin, California where 1 in 5 people suffer from hunger. Donations can be made to sfmfoodbank.org in Aaron's memory.

“ My deepest condolences, my friend, you were loved more than you know. I will miss you. Sometimes the Lord needs you home more than the ones who can carry on without you here. I don't know if it's for you to find happiness with yourself or happiness with the angels and God above... Aaron you were a great guy, I am blessed by having known you. Sending prayers 🙏 for you and your family at this sorrowful time. I hope that you can be a healing light for the ones you left behind....pray for us as we will do for you..... hopefully we will meet again. Thanks for your friendship.... Fly high my friend. Love you,
Blake
