

Abigail Gracen Bacho

July 22, 2003 - December 25, 2012

Abigail Gracen Bacho, of Newnan, Georgia, joined the angels in Heaven on December 25, 2012. Born to parents Stephen Anthony and Natalie Lois (Moore) Bacho on July 22, 2003 in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She is survived by two wonderful and loving sisters, Hannah Elizabeth and Charlotte Antonia Bacho. Additional surviving family members include Charles (Butch) Thomas Moore (maternal grandfather), Susan (aunt) and David Vega, Meredith (aunt) and Steven Mazon, Bill (uncle) Moore, Louis (uncle) and Tammy Bacho, Frank (uncle) and Michelle Bacho, John Bacho(uncle), Nena Bacho (aunt), and Beth (aunt) and Charlie Moore. Abby treasured her cousins so dearly : Rachael, Paige and Miranda Vega, Andrew, Lucas and Vivy Mazon, Amanda and Olivia Moore, Matthew, Kyle and Isabelle Bacho, Maria, John Mark and Dominic Bacho, Mikhail and Elaine Tinio. Abby is preceded in death by Martha Hurt Moore (maternal grandmother) and Frank and Carmela Bacho (paternal grandparents).

Abby was enrolled in the 4th grade at Newnan Crossing Elementary School. She received her First Communion at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church in 2010. Abby lived such a high spirited life and enjoyed the sport of soccer with Coweta Cannons and Southern Soccer Academy. Abby's flair for drama led her to summer acting camps and amateur video productions with her sisters, friends and cousins. She recently found her passion for singing and was a member of the Newnan Crossing Chorus.

In keeping with Abby's loving and generous spirit, the gift of life was shared through organ donation. We were all inspired by Abby's vivacious and exuberant attitude toward life.

Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com

Celebrations of Abby's life and visitation is Thursday evening between 6-8 p.m. at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson St, Newnan, GA. The funeral service is Friday, December 28, 2012 at 10:30 a.m. at St Mary Magdalene Catholic Church, 3 Village Road, Newnan, Georgia 30265 with Father Dan Fleming officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in Abby's memory to St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church, Newnan First United Methodist Church Preschool, 33 Greenville St, Newnan, GA 30263 or Children's Health Care of Atlanta Transplant Support Fund: CHOA

“ Dear Bacho Family, Our hearts are broken by the passing of our sweet Abby. Words can't express how much I loved her. As her 3rd grade teacher, I can remember all the times she would walk through my classroom door with that huge smile and greet me. I always felt her warmness and tender heart. She loved others and we loved her. Chloe told me she would always remember her sweet smile and how she always tried to make her laugh...sounds just like Abby. Abby was a dear friend to Chloe. Friendships are what hold us together in our time of need and God placed Abby and Chloe together. She will be missed forever, but I know she is in the loving arms of God. We love you Natalie, Steven, Hannah, and Charlotte.

“ Dear Butch, Natalie, Steve, and family, It was on Wednesday that I heard of this awful tragedy and I am writing to tell you that you all are in my prayers and thoughts in these difficult days. I think back to being with all of you at Martha's memorial service in 2010 and what a pleasure it was to get to know you and to know that you knew me through reports from Martha. I will continue to pray for everyone's well-being, for Steve's recovery, and for healing for all your pain and suffering.. I rejoice in the knowledge, as so many have already said, that Abby is surely now with Martha in the safety and happiness of Heaven where we all hope one day to join them. “ Natalie and family, Words cannot begin to describe how much my heart breaks for you and your family. My youngest child Mark is just 4 days older (and also a soccer player) than your loving Abigail. My heart aches as I struggle to write this, for no words can even begin to describe, imagine or soften the pain, agony and heartfelt loss that you and your family are dealing with. And while I never had the wonderful opportunity to meet your beautiful daughter, I can tell how precious a child she is and how many lives she touched! Her description through everyone's memories and words: beautiful, happiness, joy, vibrance and full of fun and excitement...will be a part of her Legacy, along with the special memories you keep in your hearts. Her greatest Legacy may be the gift of Life to Others that you provided Natalie, through your selfless donation to the Organ Donation program. That is such a remarkable act for a grieving mother to make, but know that important decision can and will save many others. Know that we mere mortals cannot even begin to explain that which is unexplainable, and "Why?" may never be answered. I pray for your husband's swift and speedy recovery, and personal healing upon his return home. I pray for your daughters, and ask God to give them strength. I pray for you, that your Faith will carry you through this and I trust that God will watch over you and your family in these difficult times. Patti Schwensen (Thirty-One sister)

“ I received notice of Abigail's untimely passing from Peachtree Battle Antiques. She is now a gift to the Angels in Heaven. My young son was taken at age 8 many years ago and so I know how difficult it is for you at this time. Remember only the good die young and one day all of this will become a lot clearer. I truly pray for you and your family at your time of sorrow and am so glad that you have other children so that you can focus on the happy times in watching them to continue to grow up. “ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bacho, I am a friend of Susan Vega and a former teacher of Rachel and Paige. Please accept my sincere sympathy on the passing of your precious daughter, Abigail. I know there are no words that can take away the pain of such a tragedy, but I hope that the many prayers that are surrounding you and your family will bring some comfort to you. These prayers will certainly include those of our Immaculate Heart of Mary School Community. May God bless you for giving the gift of life through organ donation. A former student of mine recently received the gift of a liver transplant. I cannot begin to tell you what this has meant to her and to her family. Your gift is such a beautiful way to honor your daughter's memory. Rest in peace, sweet Abigail. Ruth Patch

“ Steve & Natalie, ...although I never met precious Abigail, it was evident just how amazing and special she was & how many people she touched. Natalie, it was your infectious personality, your witty ways & great sense of humor that I remember most about you-- which sounds just like Abby. It's obvious that she touched many lives--of all ages and meant so much to all who came in contact with her. She will never be forgotten and always be in your & Steve's hearts & the hearts of everyone she touched. I hope and pray that you both will find peace and comfort in knowing just how very special of an angel she was and will continue to be in the heavens above.

“ Abigail was the greatest girl I've ever met! I loved every second I spent with her. We shared secrets and we always would FaceTime each other due to the long distance we live from each other. But seeing her every summer at Myrtle Beach made my whole vacation! Being Abby's first cousin it's so hard for me to deal with all of this myself, but I also feel so terrible for my family to have to go through all of this. We are such a wonderful family though and Natalie you're such an amazing mom and aunt as well! I love you all. And there's not a day that will go by that I won't think about Abby. “ There are no words to express how sad I am for your family and the world for having to return such a precious angel back to Heaven. I adore my wonderful chameleon Abby B. There was never a time I saw her that she wasn't smiling from ear to ear, and just seeing her would always put a smile on my face too. I was blessed with the honor of being her 2nd grade teacher at NCES and will cherish those memories forever.
