“ Wow, I just heard about this and it is hard to believe Adam is gone. I have so many memories of him as a silly kid, wrestling with Ben, Josh, and Jeremiah, spilling milk everywhere, and so much more. All of my best to the Chabot family. I can't imagine what you guys are living with right now.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear about Adam. I am so sorry. I will be praying for all of you. Adam and I had a unique relationship, and I truly enjoyed the time we spent together. I loved hearing his thoughts and ideas about his life, his varied and eclectic tastes in music, and his very dry sense of humor. He was so much fun! I never hear a Jeff Buckley song without thinking of him. I hope you are surrounded with family, friends, and community who are comforting you, loving you, and helping with practical needs. I wish I could be there. Hugs, Kelly Spradlin

“ I already miss you so much. You were the best father ever and the best brother ever. I used to look forward to our long phone conversations. I could talk to you about anything with no judgement. I keep expecting to see you or get a call from you but I know I'll see again one day. Until then I'm going to keep your memory alive to the best of my ability and tell everyone what an amazing person and father you were. I love you so much brother.

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences. Adam was one of my precious 5th graders at Poplar Road Elementary. He was such a polite and bright young man. He was the type of student that all teachers love. I will be keeping the entire family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ So sad to hear about the loss of your son. May God comfort you in this time of sorrow, give you strength to know that Adam is in a better place, and keep providing all of the memories of Adam while he was a part of this world. Some day, we will all be together in the mansion with many rooms that our Father has prepared for us. ~
