“ Adele was our friend and next-door neighbor when we lived in Peachtree City, Georgia. We have kept in contact over the years. When our Christmas card was returned to us, we knew that something was wrong. We are so sad to hear that Adele has passed. She was a kind, caring person and we had many chats, usually about our young rambunctious sons. She adored her children and grandchildren. It was always nice to get updates in her Christmas cards. We hope that the love she had for you and the memories of her will give you warmth and smiles in the years to come. Dave and Edie McGuirk
