“ When I first introduced myself as his cousin, he laughed it off and walked away. Until his mama confirmed it and then we were hanging out until I left my junior year. I meet back up with him a year ago and he was same sweet guy. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I would have been at the service but I didn't know. Alan is going to be missed by me and my husband. Love Jade (Collins) Stuermer and Michael Stuermer

“ It's hard to think that you are gone. It's hard to think we won't see that smile again. You were such a good man despite anything you went through. I remember the first time I meant you 10 years ago... to my daughter glued to you when we all went to ATL just a few months ago. You will truly be missed Alan and it will leave us missing something everyday. It's just so unreal and I send out my thoughts with your dad and the rest of the family.

“ My son Kenneth Harris is one of Alan's best friends, we have known him for over 20 years. I call him one of my boys. I respect him as a man. I love him as one of mine, . One of my favorite memories is he showed me how to shoot, we laughed all day because I was so short and he was leaning so much to show me...there are so many more. Even tho I kinda got on to him from time to time he always had that big smile on his face and would say "I know, I know" then hugged me tight and I love u. I miss and love u Alan
