

Alan Reid Jennings

July 29, 1959 - November 9, 2019

Alan Reid “Pops” Jennings, age 60, passed away on Saturday, November 9, 2019 at his home in Newnan. He was born on July 29, 1959 in Newnan, GA to the late Bobby Reid Jennings and Harriett “Grancie” Graham Jennings.

Reid, as he was known by friends and family, enjoyed cooking, gardening and loved making people pretty. Some might say when he cut hair, he really made himself feel good by making others look good. He was affectionally known as “Pops” and found no greater joy in this life than spending time with his grandchildren. If he wasn’t in the kitchen cooking, he was working in his yard. His favorite place to spend time with his loved ones was on St. George Island.

The funeral service celebrating the life Reid lived is Thursday, November 14, 2019 in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan at 4:00 PM with Pastor Hal Taylor officiating. The family will receive friends Wednesday evening from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at McKoon Funeral Home.

Reid is survived by his wife, Karen Brooks Jennings; children, Erin Bass (Chris), Marlie Hopkins (Cory), Graham Jennings (Courtney); his pride and joy grandchildren, Bradley, Ethan, Cadence, Maggie, Griffin, Brooklyn and Emerson. He is also survived by his sister, Carol Fulgham (Mark) and mother in law, Betty “Grandmama” Brooks.

With Reid's love for gardening, flowers are welcomed. Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ My son’s friend recommended Reid to me when my usual stylist in Peachtree City was not available. He was able to match my color and highlights and just trimmed my long hair the two inches I wanted. He was delightful and animated during the entire visit. I’m so sorry to hear of his passing so young. I’ll be praying for all of your family now and in the future.

“ Reid was more than my hair stylist for many years, he was my friend. We always had plenty to talk about from gardening, family, to our everyday woes. He catered my retirement in 2016, and it was an awesome array of food and beautiful floral centerpiece. He had a natural artistic talent for whatever he did. He will be sorely missed by me and I send my loving prayers to the family for healing.

“ Reid did my hair when my family first moved to Newnan. I went to him once and said I was ready to try something new so he cut it short. I loved it, but my husband was not happy I had gotten it cut so short! Reid seemed like a nice man. My condolences to his family and friends at this difficult time. Prayers for you all.

“ Reid was a very special person to me. He did my hair for years and never failed to please me even when we would try something new. He was a sweet man and certainly loved his family and friends. He may be gone, but never forgotten. Rest in sweet peace Reid. My thoughts and prayers are with Reid's family and friends.

“ My prayers and sympathy are extended to the family, especially Reid's sister Carol. I have so many good memories of precious Miss Harriette bringing her two children to First Christian Church, Newnan. Alan and I loved little Carol, who sometimes sat with us in services and even tagged along on a couple of our dates at our invitation.
