“ Many fond memories of Alec from law school. He had a larger than life personality with the heart to match. I remember pick-up basketball games at the Macon Health Club where Tidwell was either draining 3's or hitting Big Al down low and no one ever got the inside position on the big man...

What a wonderful smile and sense of humor. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I was thrilled to have another Mercer grad working at Morgan & Morgan, and was sorry to have Alec leave us and the big city behind to pursue a different path. May he rest in peace.

“ So many great memories. When we would study for law school exams, he would secretly set up the stereo to be super loud and then at an inopportune moment would blast beethoven's 5th. We would get mad - he'd leave and come back with Dairy Queen for everyone. Oh and then he'd get the highest grade on the exam

“ As a young lawyer, I was fortunate to work with Alec at MIJS. He was incredibly hard working, but had a great sense of humor and a wealth of knowledge and advice that he readily shared. I was so saddened to hear of his passing, and my heart goes out to all his family and friends. Big Al, you are missed.

I knew Alec in the fall of 1986.

We were both pledges and fraternity brothers at Alpha Tau Omega at the University of Arizona. Alex's nickname was "Bus". I don't know who gave him the name but it stuck. Alec was the guy I always imagined I would give the ball to when it was 4th and inches with the game on the line. I would block for him, and he would get it done. Alec had this jean jacket with the Grateful Dead's Shakedown Street guy painted on the back which I thought was cool, but I don't think a lot of people out there got it. Their loss. Both of us left U of Arizona at the end of the first semester to pursue other avenues. There were things we liked about the U of A, but living in the fraternity house at the same time, it was a lot to process. Both of us had hope of professional plans for the future; Just not the right fit at the time... I always liked Alec as he was light hearted, and he made me chuckle. He was a great guy.

My sincerest condolences to his family.

Sincerely,

“ So very sorry Michelle & family. I remember meeting Alec, enjoying drinks at Village Tavern and laughing so hard my stomach hurt...especially with his "run for the bathroom" story after enjoying spicy Asian food in Atlanta. We are all better off for having known him.
