“ Dear Jody and Vickie, Our hearts are saddened for what you are going through. It is so hard to let go of those we love so dearly. Aunt Alice went to sleep and woke up to be with her Jesus. And as beautiful as that is, there is still the pain of goodbyes. We miss our loved ones. Know that Alice's love for you is eternal. That did not end on Sept. 15th. We will miss her easy laughter and sweet smile. We will miss her. But we know we will see her again one day. And that is what sees us through this difficult time. Love, Donna Teddy and TJ

“ My dearest friend Mrs Alice. I was so happy to be your caregiver for 3 years. I was happy to see you again. We shared many talks about my sister Shirley and the beach. Something we both loved. I liked dressing you up, with your makeup, lip stick, and getting much better at putting on your fingernail polish. Thank you for being a nice lady when you met my family all 7 of us years ago. When you get to heaven tell my mommy and daddy hello. I love you Mrs. Alice, and I will miss you, always. I'm doing fine. Thank you for going to Church on Sundays' with me. We had fun. We also went to Bingo games and won--1 time. I LOVE YOU. Elizabeth Dillon---Buffy.

“ I am stunned to read of Miss Alice's passing. She was the exact age of my mom except she was one month younger to the day. My mom died 21 yrs ago of cancer so Miss Alice kind of stepped in to "MOTHER" me. My mom was exactly one month older than Alice. I am at a total loss for words as I cannot convey how special your mom was to me. She and I were phone friends and I had just thought of calling her last week but I got side tracked and did not try to call. I have not spoken with her in about one year Jody, and family, I will be praying for you to get through this terrible time and I know your faith will comfort you. My son's dad is buried at Oak Hill so I will be stopping by Miss Alice's grave with a flower in a few weeks. God Bless.

“ I grew up across the street from where Mrs. Borders lived. When I was a little girl I used to go over to her house alot and sit and talk with her. She was such a blessing to me. She was so sweet, friendly, and loving and i'll never forget her or the talks that we had. She always talked alot about her kids and grandkids. She gave me alot of great advice. I will miss her dearly and i'm sorry I didn't get back to since her once I moved. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
