“ Please accept our sincere sympathy on the loss of your husband. We are so sorry that we were not able to meet him, but Morgan told us wonderful things about him and was honored that she was able to meet him before his tragic passing. It is obvious from what a marvelous young man Al is, that his father was a wonderful man. We are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To the family, My name is Steve Holman and I called on Al for the last 26 years at Owens Corning. Everytime I saw Al he always had a joke for me. We would share stories,jokes, and our love for dogs (especially his) often. I considered Al a good friend and I am so sorry to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.

“ I am sorry to hear about your dad. May the God of all comfort be with you. Job asked if an able-bodied man dies can he live again? Job 14:15 answers "You (God) will call, and I myself shall answer. For the work of your own hands you will have a yearning." Yes God will have a yearning to bring back to life all those who are in the memorial tombs. Life in a peaceful earth with no pain. (Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:4) I pray you will find comfort in these scriptures.

“ Judy and Family, Karen and I are so sorry for your loss. Al was a great man and good friend while working here at Owens Corning with me all these years. He was always ready to help whenever I needed anything here or away from here. Owens Corning is what it is today because of great men like Al that paved the way for others to work here. He was kind to me and always a pleasure to work with and around. I will miss him greatly. Karen and I want you to know our love, thoughts and prayers are with you during your very difficult time.
