Nanci and I are amazed how 30 years of a happy married life to our mom, the love of Al's life, has been omitted. Al 'zeide' was loved by his grandchildren; Robyn, Olivia and Jillian who knew of nothing other than grandpa.

Shame on you. We held a special place for Al because he made our mom so happy. I doted on him with a never ending glass of whiskey ... Cheers to the correct memory of our dear Al. May you be blissfully reunited with Linda in the afterlife.

“ Mrs. Sue Brown referred to him as "Al". We at our church were so very happy when she found a wonderful man that helped her in so many ways. I will always remember Mr. Al as he visited the office, as Sue spoke so well of him and I heard stories about his family in Florida. I offer my sincere thanks for the life of Mr. Al and offer my sincere condolences to his beloved family. Thomas Sheets
