

Amanda Brady

November 20, 1941 - February 8, 2008

Amanda Denson Brady, 66, of Birmingham, AL died Friday, February 08, 2008 in Greenville, GA. She was born November 20, 1941 in Tuscaloosa, AL to the late William Howard Denson & Marjorie Goodwin Denson Fowler.

Ms. Denson enjoyed a deep, lifelong commitment to Sacred Harp music, a popular religious folk music sung acapella in four part harmony. She was integral in introducing Sacred Harp to other regions of the country outside of the Deep South, particularly the Washington, D.C. area where she lived for nine years. She also loved to travel and lived in Barbados, Iceland and Wales.

She is survived by her beloved children, Jim (Mary) Brady of Alexandria, VA, The Rev. Mandy Brady of Newnan, GA, Tim (Erica) Brady of Clemson, SC, Howard (Meghan) Brady of Old Saybrook, CT; grandchildren, Colin Denson, Emily McGuire, James Gabriel, Garrett Denson, Kendall Denson, Grace MacInnis, Katelin Pearl, & John Joseph; brother, Dick Fowler of Marietta, GA; and sister, Kathy Savelli of Springfield, VA.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com
