“ Amy was such an amazing person, she was one of the sweetest and happiest people that I have had the chance to know. I am blessed to have had her be a part of my life. We have went different ways over the last few years but managed to stay in touch, I will always remember that beautiful smile and how happy she always made everyone around her. I am praying for Amy and her family today.

“ I just couldn't believe it when I got the call that Amy had passed. I always thought she was so beautiful. That jet black hair and beautiful smile. She always made me laugh.. (crack up is more like it) and I knew if I wanted a laugh I could count on her. And I thought she must have gotten that sense of humor from her grandma Janie because she always made me laugh too..Amy was about 10 when I met her and The Garcia family. We quickly became like family. It's just so hard to accept when someone so young is taken. She will be greatly missed. My prayers go out to all The Garcia family and Kyle and especially Jadon. Life goes on for those left behind but it will never be the same as we remember the one we loved. Amy until we meet again in heavenly paradise sweet girl.

“ I only knew Amy for a short period of time, but in that time I came to discover what a wonderful person she was. She was a joy to be around and work with. Her sense of humor, her upbeat attitude, and willingness to help made her a real bright spot in the office. She will be sorely missed. My deepest condolences to the loved ones she has left behind. I know there is nothing I can say that will take away the pain of her passing, but I can offer you my thoughts and my prayers that you will be sustained through these trying times. I have weathered the loss of many loved ones myself and I will tell you the most important lesson I have learned: It is better to be thankful for all the good times you had with her, rather than regret all the time you missed. I will also offer to you a scripture that has been a real comfort to me when I have faced hard times: "Don not fear, for I am with you; do not be afraid, for I am your God. I will strengthen you; I will help you; I will hold on to you with My righteous right hand." -- Isaiah 41:10 (HCSB translation) Sincerely, Stephen McVey and Family

“ To Amy's immediate family and to Susan and Harvey, we are so saddened by your loss. There really are no words that anyone can speak to you that will take care of your grief. But God can and our prayer is that He will speak loud and clear into your hearts and swallow up the pain, replacing it with His peace and His Presence, until you are reunited with Amy again. We love you and will keep you in our prayers.

“ I recently worked with Amy at Delta on our Christmas party committee. Amy helped coming up with all the very funny christmas names for the groups and helped me decorate and print of all of our name tags. Although she may have not been feeling good. She patiently sat in my cube and helped me print and decorate all of them. That is how I will remember Amy her great sense of humor, her cheerful smile and her willingness to always lend a hand. My deepest sympathy for your great loss. My prayers for your family during this difficult time. Amy you will be missed.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. Psalm 23 1 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, 3 he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

“ When I think of Amy I think of her smile when we would pass in the hallway. I think of her kind sweet comments on my outfit or my hair. There was never a day I saw her that she didn't find a way to make me feel better about myself. I adored her, and her beautiful smile. My heart goes out to her parents and husband. But my soul feels the loss deeply for Jade. I will pray for his healing always as every mother should. May your mother guide you from heaven, and God heal your soul. Thank you for sharing your mother with us at Delta, it was an honor to have known her.

“ I knew Amy in 1979, when she was still a beautiful toddler and the few years we spent together where we lived were amazing, thinking back on those times. The memories I have are the ones when she was little and something that always comes to mind was the Dress she had that it said "Here comes trouble" I don't know much about her the only thing is that she was really smart and had a quick imagination. It is hard to think she is not with us but she will be always remembered. My mom loved her because of the way Amy was but above all the sweet girl she was and I imagine she carried that sweetness everywhere she went and gave it to everyone she touched. All those who have had any contact with Amy will remember her. We love you Amy!!!

“ We became friends because of the way Amy is (I just can't yet say 'was'). With a heart of honey and a fire in her belly Amy personified the emotion everyone should bring to their life. Amy; the inquisitive, loving, strong willed, passionate, helpful, smart, argumentative, funny, questioning, problem solving YOU! Oh we could go on couldn't we? I wanted to be your friend the day I met you Amy. You made that happen because you love people. Jadon will miss you Amy and he will love you forever. I miss you Amy and will love you as the best friend you were for as long as I live! To the Garcia family...God Bless y'all! I wish you peace.

“ I never knew Amy but I saw her when she was a baby. Under the circumstances before she was ever born. God had a plan for her life. I know her Mom and I know the character traits in her has been transfered through each one of her girls. So I'm confident that she was a wonderful person, friend, co-worker, sister. I can't tell by all the response to this tragic loss, that she will be sorely missed. Only God can heal the wounds from this loss; but I know that if she is anything like her mom she would want us to know she's at the right hand if our Heavenly Father. God bless all of those in Amy's family, friends, & co-workers; we will continue to lift all of you in prayer, that God Will comfort all of you during this time. R.I.P. Amy we love you.
