“ Still thinking of you often, today is a hard day for me. But remembering in our younger days the good times we had. I wished with all my heart it would have stayed that way between us. But deep down in my heart, I'm so sorry we let our stubbornness get in the way. But deep down inside I never stopped loving you, please forgive me for how I acted. Love your little sister, Holly.

“ It's been a year ago today, and how often you cross my mind. I think about all the good times and also the bad, and the shoulda, could a woulda but didn't. I carry that weight everyday of my life, my fault that we should have made things right, I pray for your forgiveness and hope that one day we will see each other and make it right. But one thing for sure is that even through the bad I still loved you and we're proud to call you my sister.

“ Never got to say goodbye, didn't get that chance, I can only hope and pray that deep down inside you knew I loved you with all my heart and will miss you forever. To the moon and back, sisters forever.
