“ To The Dennis and Day families, I was very touched yesterday at Angela's wonderful service. I feel so lucky to have been her friend in high school. She was always one of the kindest people I've ever known. I only wish that we had kept in touch. You all are forever in our prayers. I have loved seeing Bobby and all your beautiful children on FB. Renee sends her condolences too as she thought so much of Angela also. Much love, Sherry

“ Dear Dennis Family, I know you know this already, but your mom was a really special person. Through her efforts, hundreds of families in Coweta and Fayette counties were impacted through homeschooling support. God used her in so many lives. Your mom was funny, honest, and down to earth. She said what needed to be said, and she was the first to admit when she was wrong. She has left such a legacy for you kids. I feel honored to have known her. I know you all are proud of her. I am praying for you all.

“ I just heard about Angela and cannot begin to express my sorrow. I am on the road and unable to attend the service but wanted to let you know I was thinking of y'all during this trying time. I only had the pleasure of meeting Angela a couple of times but she left a lasting memory. A beautiful person who lit up any room she entered. My thoughts and prayers are with you today and always.

“ Jean, Jerry, Craig, Bobby, Lauren, Stephen, and Ben, I am so heartbroken for you in your loss of Angel. I know she goes by Angela, but she has always been Angel to me. It has been a blessing to watch her grow into the beautiful Christian woman we all know today. God used her mightily while she was here on earth, and I know there is rejoicing in heaven now as they receive her into their arms. I love you all and will continue to uplift you in prayer.

“ Woke up this morning, not wanting to be sad about Angela. She would not have wanted that. What I forgot on my last post, I just had to write one more. She was FUNNY!!! Funny, and so much fun to be with There was always laughter when you were with her and when you entered her home. She could tell more stories and alot of them where about things that happened to her. Like knocking the Wendy's ordering speaker over with a truck trailer I think . She could make you laugh so hard your cheeks would hurt. So today that is what I want to remember about her all her laughter and smile and her little bunny nose when she laughed sometime it would wrinkle up so cute. That is what she would want from all her family smiles and laughter. Because I have to remember we are only here for a short time. This is not our real home, Heaven is our real home and she is there and all is well, we are the ones left behind missing her. So today I am going to try to think of those smiles and try to be happy, especially that we were so blessed to spend these man wonderful years with her.

“ Angela was one of the first moms I met when our family ventured into homeschooling fourteen years ago. She and I finished part of the journey together as senior moms when Stephen and my daughter were getting ready to graduate. Angela was a source of inspiration and joy for so many kids and mothers in Eagles Nest. Her bright smile and sense of humor made the load so much lighter. It was an absolute privilege to teach her younger son, Ben, this year in science and it made me see what a strong and tender family she raised. She has been a good and faithful guardian of all God entrusted to her care, a legacy we can all admire. Our prayers go with you, Bobby, Lauren, Stephen and Ben during your time of grief.

“ It is so hard to believe that Angela is gone. She was a true testament of a giving life. She touched so many lives through 4H and Eagle's Nest. The many kids she mentored and coached will forever be her legacy. She gave the gift of her time generously, and made such a hugely constructive impact by doing so. What a wonderful blessing you were to so many! You will forever be missed dear friend! We all look forward to seeing you again!

“What can I say about my beautiful, Godly, and caring niece. I was only 13 when she was born, but fell in love with her right away, she was such a cute little girl, and then as a teen so much fun and always active in everything, horses, drill team, etc. Then there was college and working then, she married a wonderful young guy and good looking too, Bobby of course! They got their first home and she was teaching and he was policing and later they started their family. She was such a doting mother. She loved being a mother and always tried to teach her kids right from wrong, how to be kind, just so many things. I always admired her as a mother. Always, always good to me. I have never had a cross word with her in all these years. Always caring about others and trying to help others. I mean really going out of her way if she sees someone suffering or in need. And always talking about God and what he has done for her and what he can do for you. She has been like a disciple for God down here on earth to me. She loved Bobby so much and truly missed him when he was in Kuwait, his coming home was a real good coming home for her. She was just the best friend I could ever ask for even if she was my niece, I knew she would help in anyway she could or find a way. And she loved her kids enormously. They were all she would email me about what they were each doing and what Bobby was doing. She kept me informed in their life. So this past year had been a journey having to see all the trials she went through and all the time trying to get stronger so she could do things for herself. It has been so hard watching all this. You can't but ask why her God she is so good, but we have no control, we just know he is with us during our trials., But I would not have missed any of the times I got to share with her. I treasured those times and always will. They are like in a treasure chest of something wonderful that will always be in my mind and heart. I cannot tell you how much I loved her so and will miss her so, but feel so blessed for Bobby, Lauren, Stephen and Ben. I know how much they loved her and how much she loved them and am so happy they are in my life. I love all of you so much and always will. I am so sorry for the loss of your wife and mother, but so completely happy that Bobby had so many years, happy years with someone who loved him dearly and they were a happy couple. Most people can't say that after even several years. That Lauren, Stephen and Ben were so blessed to have such a good, and wonderful Godly mother, beautiful inside and out that completely loved them with all her heart and wanted only the best for them. That they had a priviledgr to have such a wonderful mother. I Bless you each one, and wish you comfort in knowing that. And I love you all very much. Just know your mother is always there looking down on you, she never really leaves you because she leaves so much of her in you and your heart. Aunt Vicki .

“ Bobby, Stephen, Lauren and Ben, I am just heartbroken for all of you and your entire family and for loss of my friend. I don't know how we are gonna go on without her. She was such a big impact on mine and Stormie's life without her guiding hand and enormous help Stormie would have never realized her dream of riding horses much less having her own horse. Your Mom was such a positive and good influence to me. She was always positive and we laughed over everything I will miss her smiling face and her infectious laugh. I know she is watching over us and I know she is in heaven celebrating and shining her light. There will definitely be a big hole in everyone's heart. She was so much support and help to so many people on a daily basis. I praying for all of you during this terrible time. Hang on to the wonderful and good memories, and know how much she loved us all and how so proud she was of all the good things and people's lives she affected. But especially how proud she was of you all!!! Love to you all!!!!

“ Dear Bobby, Stephen, Lauren, and Ben: I am writing this condolence because I think in the days, months, and years to come you will treasure these messages from all the people that are here to help and support you thru such a trying and painful time. God wants us to be thankful for everything, so I have been struggling how to be thankful at this time. Some have already mentioned about being thankful that Angela's pain is over. Some have talked about her legacy - that is something to be thankful about. And I guess we can be thankful that we even had her in our lives. I think the search for something to be thankful for might help me thru my sorrow, which is nothing compared to the sorrow you feel. I pray that you can find something to be thankful about and that it brings you a peace only God can give.

“ As a co-worker of Bobby's at PD, we want to let the family know...you have lost a wonderful, beautiful woman, as Bobby always spoke so highly of Angela. No more pain, just smiles and arms outreached to protect her family now. Precious Memories...

“ I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers. I went to school with Angela and had not seen her in many years. We reconnected via facebook earlier this year. I was blessed to attend the prayer service a few months ago. Seeing her after all these years did my heart wonders. She was simply stunning and as always so loving and kind. I cherish the messages we exchanged and resort to them often. Her words were always kind and sincere. May God bless you all!

“ Bobby, Lauren, Stephen, and Ben: Mrs. Angela was the most positive, outgoing, giving and precious woman I ever had the privilege of knowing. She always had a contagious smile and inspiring optimism about her. I remember whenever she would have on of her "Angelaisms" and most of us would want to cry if we were in her shoes she always laughed it off! My heart aches for your family during this time. She loved her family and her children more than anything. She was and still is so proud of each of you. You have the best guardian Angel (most likely sitting on a beautiful horse like Mr. Buck) smiling down on you. You are all in my prayers constantly. Love, Megan

“ My sweet friend, Angela...you continue to be a mentor, a leader, a faithful servant, and a treasure to everyone that you came across in life. You did not lose the battle, my friend...you won the war and are in the place for which we all strive. I know that God wrapped His arms around His loving daughter welcoming you into His kingdom as you wept and rejoiced in His presence. Your unwavering commitment to faith and family has been an inspiration during this time and will never be forgotten. You have left a legacy touching the lives of thousands and inspiring them to be true and faithful. I will always treasure our talks - laughing or crying - they meant the world to me. When I hear the thundering hooves above, I'll know that you are in the herd riding the wind in the greenest of fields.

“ Bobby, Lauren, Stephen, Ben God have received an Angel who has probably ridden in on a beautiful white horse. I hope you can find peace that your Mother is no longer in pain. She has definitely touched so many lives during her short time here. Her friends and family will carry you through this I promise. You will be overwhelmed with the love they will give each of you. Trust in your faith as I know you will. Love all of you Susie

“ Bobby, Lauren , Stephen and Ben, my heart aches for you all. I have never been good with words in a time of loss. Forgive me if I stumble a lttle...I was so fortunate to get to spend time with Angela. She came into my life right on time. As she would say, "that definitely was a God thing". Angela was one of the most caring, loving people I ever met. I always admired her. She loved you all so very much! She would light up when she talked about what was going on in your lives. I know she is rejoicing in Heaven and watching over you all until you can be together again. I will continue to keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.
