“ Oh what sad news! Megan and Becca told me about sweet Angela and I was immediately sent back to our years on Lynn Circle where all the kids grew up. What a wonderful neighborhood for all of you to grow up in. I am praying for John, Sonya and Holly and all the family. What a huge gabfest Bonnie and Angela are having! Love yo you all.

“ I was just thinking about your sweet mama just the other day and then got the news that you were gone. You were like one of mine growing up and we had the best neighborhood. We will never know why God called you home when he did but I'm sure you and Bonnie had one heck of a reunion. My heart goes out to John, Sonya and Holly and the rest of the family.

“ Those special moments of our girlie talks growing up, your smile and laughter that we shared as kids running around in the neighborhood. I'll cherish forever and I miss you more than anything. You were taken to soon but GOD called you home and he got a beautiful angel.

The fact that your no longer here will always cause me pain but your forever in my heart and all the precious memories. Until we meet again!

I am so sorry for this sad news, I had not seen Angela in a couple of years but we had so many memories with our kids and hanging out together. I just cannot believe this has happened to such an fun loving girl. It just makes me so sad. I am so sorry for the loss for the kids. Prayers are with them and the rest of the family. I wish I could give them all hugs.
