“ I loved your mom so much!! I'm Laurie Warren Crane. My mom and dad , Doris and John Warren, were very good friends of Ann and Archie in Cashiers. My mom played tennis with Ann and they both loved planting, picking, and arranging flowers! The couples enjoyed going to dinner together and going to your parents house for dinner. I'm so glad I had the privilege of seeing Ann in August(I think it was the Eclipse weekend). I went by and had a nice visit with her. Couldn't believe she was 94-- so active and with it! I went back by there in October but she wasn't home. How did she pass away? She seem so healthy when I saw her. Who adopted her cute dog and chicken? She will certainly be missed but how grateful y'all must be that she lived to be 94 and could spend so many wonderful years in the mountains. My dad has been gone 6 years(he was 92) and mom has been gone 3 years(she was 89). It sure is hard losing your parents but what wonderful memories we have. Your family continues to be in my prayers.
Most sincerely, Laurie W. Crane
