“ Oh "Annabl" - I miss you so. Thank you for loving me at a time in my life when I was MOST un-loveable. It could not have been easy to marry a man with a 15-year-old daughter...but you did it anyhow! Thank you for loving my daddy and taking care of him. My heart broke for you when he passed...but then rejoiced when you found someone else who made your heart happy. Although it wasn't nearly long enough, I'm tickled you found happiness again with another good man. You certainly deserved it.

I know you are having a wonderful reunion with lots of amazing people and critters. And I know I will see you again.
