“ Wes will be greatly missed. He rebuilt (like new) a child's wheel barrow for my son. He was always creative with machining.

“ I will miss Mr. Argle Wesley Evans. I used to talk to him when I worked in Maintenance in the mornings and break time. He was a good guy to talk to. He was so creative working on all the machines for GDOT and he will be missed.
God Bless.

“ I miss you and love you so much. I know that I wasn't always the perfect son but I have to say that I now understand everything that you and mom had taught me now that I'm a parent I see the struggles that y'all went through! I hope I made you and mom proud of who I've become? ;? Just know that you'll always be there in my life and my heart 💜!!!!

“ It started when we were 2 yrs old. Now 62 yrs later you are gone. I will never forget our life together. We share two children and from them we have four amazing Granddaughters. I have my memories that will never fade in my heart locked safely away. I will miss you more than words can say.
