“ Ruth and family, I just found out about the loss of our dear loved one, Art. Though I havent seen you both for awhile, please know that I've thought about you often as treasured gifts at Newnan Presbyterian. Yes he had some "kick", humor, wisdom, common sense, and a heart of gold. Also,you have been his rock and have shared love with him and others in the community. May God's care and love sustain you as you journey through the season of grief. Love you, Annie Tarbutton

“ I am so happy to have been chosen by Mr Mallehan to be his "personal" physical therapist during his rehabilitation. It was such a pleasure to experience his wonderful dry-witted humor, always filled by his twinkling eyes and hearty laugh. But most of all, to taste his infamous SALSA !!
Rest in peace, Captain Handsome.
Nikki, your PT

“ Ruth, I have no words to say that will make things better but to just say how sorry I am about the passing of Art. He was special. I remember when we worked together at FUMC and he would come by. Always a smile. God gives strength and comfort in times of need. May you and your family feel that love today and always.

Love and prayers,
Gerrie

“ I haven't seen Art in many years but I regret his passing. His and Ruth's visits to Drella and I in Michigan were events we looked forward to and always enjoyed. Who will make Texas tacos for us now?

“ Sincere condolences on Mr. Mallehan's passing. I remember his pleasant demeanor when I attended Newnan Presbyterian many years ago. He lived a long and fruitful life and will truly be missed.

“ Many prayers sent for you all. Although , we didn't know him very long, he sure made our days a little brighter and a lot spicier! Thinking about him making salsa for us always brings a smile! May God comfort you all and give you peace ❤️

“ Precious memories of sweet Art. Always enjoyed his gentle spirit and cheerful smile. He was also quick to make you laugh too as he loved to share his funny wit and humor. Grateful I was able to visit with him just last week. Lifting family and friends up in prayer that we can all find peace and comfort in knowing Art is whole again and in God's loving arms. “ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of a man who will definitely be missed, especially I will miss his broad smile and sense of humor. I am so blessed that I was able to visit with him last week and get a big hug and some "sugar" before he left this earthly plane. We should all feel confident that Art is now with our good Lord above, but he will remain in our hearts forever. I send much love and comfort to the family, Linda Banks
