Mothers are God's Angels here on earth and Miss Aubree has the BEST. She leaves much love for her Family and a Smile to light up Heaven. I can never express how sad we all are for those who loved her most. God's got this now...grace and peace to you all. Love 💕💕

“ I met Amber way back in 2001-2002. I never got the chance to meet any of het beautiful girls. I am so heartbroken and hurting for you. Your precious little girl will always,be smiling and laughing watching over you and her sisters. She'll always be with you. She was so beautiful.

“ Aubree shares the same birthday as my youngest child Cole, whom they laid next to each other in the nicu at Egleston as they both fought for their lives after birth. Amber and I have kept up with one another over the years in hopes of our children meeting again one day and in support of one another as mothers. I have prayed for Aubree since birth, although I never knew her personally. So my heart aches with and for Amber and the family. I don't know why life allows more heart ache for others but I do have faith in God and pray Amber and the whole family cherish the memories and find a way to have peace and growth in Aubree's honor. Sending love and prayers for everyone. ❤️
