“ I remember you as a little, little, guy always keeping your momma busy...as you grew up I remember being around the entire family on a regular basis. Bridgette, Greg, Todd, Tad, Papa Smurf, and Judy was a daily routine. I was so excited years later when I got to reunite with and work with your momma in Orthopedics...some years passed some more and I'll never forget the feeling of seeing your mom's post that you went to be with Jesus. I know her pain... Fly high Austin, protect that awesome momma of yours, your McKinsey too. Rest in peace sweet boy.

Austin is my awesome great nephew. He was the sweetest and sincere young man I know. He wanted to get together with me and the family for lunch very soon. He wanted to learn more of the Major family history too.

*I love you, Austin Lee Major!
