“ Susan and family, we were so very sorry to hear about your son. Words can not ease the hurt you must be feeling at this time. Just know that so many people care and would do anything to help. It seems like such a short time ago Susan, that you and Michelle were running around together. May all those good memories and those of your handsome son fill your heart and see you through the lonely days ahead. We love you girl, Judi and Mike Worth

“ My prayers are with each of you at this very difficult time. My daughter, Morgan Moore, spoke often of Austin and has many sweet memories of riding four wheelers during the summer with he and John. She is heartbroken for each of you. God has a purpose for all things even though sometimes here on earth we can't seem to understand. Rest assured that Austin is hanging out with Jesus these days and waiting on the day that he will see you again. My prayer is that all of his friends will live their lives in such a way that they will be guaranteed a reunion with this fine young man one day. May God be with you all.

“ Lord God, source and destiny of our lives, in Your loving providence You gave us Austin Pope to grow in wisdom, age, and grace. Now You have called him to Yourself. We grieve over the loss of one so young and struggle to understand Your purpose. Draw him to Yourself and give him full stature in Christ. May he stand with all the angels and saints, who know Your love and praise Your saving will. Amen. We are very sorry for your loss and may god help you through the horrible time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss...There are never no words to ease the pain when you lose a child. The pain will always be there, but you have a lot of family and friends around for you durning this time. We also have loss a child and there is no greater loss then the loss of a precious child. But God will get you threw this, he will never leave your side. Your precious son Austin is in Heaven with my Angel son, J.W. And alot more beautiful angel childen. May God keep you in his loving arms forever. Fly High Angel Austin ^j^

“ Jeff, I was about the same age as Austin when I first met you @ RDJE. Have seen you a few times since, Austin and John Robert have been to our house and BonFires a few times with David. This is a small world and Heard Co even smaller and tighter knit. We cannot imagine what you, Susan, John, Kyle and the rest of your family are going through, it is not supposed to happen this way. We are so sorry, our hearts and prayers for peace and comfort go out to you all. Wish there was something more we could do lessen the pain... we will indeed pray and remember...

“ Jeff and Susan, Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and the entire family. Austin was part of our Motocross family - Although, it has been a while since we have seen him - Ashton and he still talked. There are no words to take away the pain you are feeling. I just pray God will wrap his arm and comfort you as you face the days ahead. Austin was a great kid and was taken too soon! May he “ Jeff, Susan and Family, We are so sadden to hear of Austin's untimely death. I know the question WHY Lord, is being asked often. We will never know the answer to WHY, but we can pray for peace, love and understand to try to give you some comfort and love. We remember Susan from Dr. Pat's office and Stephen and Clay worked with Jeff. You will be in our prayers and may God bless and keep you. God loves you and we do too, Don and Mildred

“ I didn't know you but it doesn't matter I am a Child of God and love people . Praying God will comfort you all and give u strength to go through this trial ... Praying God will put a hedge about you .. Trust in God and let Him guide you through this as He is the only One who really knows.... To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord... Your loved one has completed his mission in this life and now He is on a journey that's just begun.... May God Bless you all.... Love in Christ... {{{BIG HUGS}}}

“ There are no words to say to ease your pain that your feeling so i want even try to pretend that there is, the pain is so deep. I know that pain as I have lost a child. May God give you the comfort and strength to get through sad time. I want you to know my heart goes out to you . I didn't know Austin all that well except he was the teen that was always so polite and had a smile as he would come through my lunch line daily at school. It was a joy to have got to serve him his lunch everyday, it's students like Austin that made my job so easy. R.I.P. Austin you will be missed.
