Barbara we miss your cheerful countenance in our lives and your treasured Luca the spice of your heart. I am your neighbor but having been ill myself was not aware of your situation or that you passed this life on my birthday and was interred on my eldest daughters birthday. We will miss gifting you at Christmas and our many chatty days and years as friends. May you rest from worldly cares and one day be reunited with Lawrence, the love of your life. Good news we could be related through your Banks family members.
