“ Paula, Mr. Harry & Family: I am heartbroken to hear of your loss of Mrs. Barbara. She was an amazing woman. I found this poem and wanted to share it with you. Michelle The Broken Chain We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the Chain will link again.

“ Dear Manette, Dan, Smitty, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your daughter/sister. I understand she was ill for quite some time, so she is in a much better place now. Manette when I spoke with you the other day you said you got to spend her last few days with her. Those days you will always cherish. May God give you and Dan and the rest of your family healing and peace to help ease you through these difficult times. God Bless, Christina

“ Dear Claire, Harry & the rest of the Family, I just heard about the loss of your Mom. Please know that I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Words can not take the pain away that you all will be feeling in the days and weeks to come, as I know this first hand, since I just lost my Dad a little over a month ago. Claire, you were always so sweet and helpful to him. Please know that I will be praying for you all so that God will help to ease that pain. If there is anything that I can do to help, please let me know, Thank you for being there when my Dad needed your help. Love & Prayers Joanne Beckom & Family

“ Mr. Harry and family, I'm so sorry to hear about Mrs. Barbara. She was a very sweet lady and I enjoyed being with her. In case you don't remember me, I was her personal care aide. I hated to leave her but I understood the circumstances. I didn't forget her though, every time I watched All My Children I thought of her. I will always remember Mrs. Barbara. I will pray for you all and hope that all of your hearts will heal in time. With love, Tina Williamson

“ Dear Harry & Family, I had the privilege of meeting Barbara when I delivered meals from the St. George Women's Guild Feeding our families ministry. I enjoyed our conversations and getting to know you both. I was touched by Barbara's spirit and hope she enjoyed the prayer quilt I made her. We have since moved back to NY so I can't be there in person to pay my respects. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless, Vickie Reisdorf

“ Skyhawk, Claire, Paula, and Harry: I just got the message about Barbara yesterday and wanted to say how sorry I am. You are all very much in my thoughts. I have such fond childhood memories of all of you -- many days & nights spent at your house, hanging out at Powers Crossroads (where Barbara displayed and sold her art work), trips to Florida with your whole family, and so much more. I wish you peace in this very difficult time. JoBeth

“ You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. After two years of being Ms Barbara's nurse, I know she is at peace. She now has the ability to walk, shop, watch her "soaps" and eat all the mexican she wants. May you hold the sweet memories close to your heart!

“ Harry and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I know Barbara has not been well for so long and now our Lord has taken her home. You know she's in a better place and her suffering is now gone forever. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. God bless you all. May Barbara's soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed rest in peace.
