“ I still carry the joy and warmth of Barb's laughter with me. Through all the years of softball, her encouragement and love for the game kept me going on the days I didn't want to play anymore. Frank and Maddie, sending my love and condolences from CO.

“ Barbara and I would always talk when we were walking our dogs. I always enjoyed talking to her and laughing about silly dog stories. She was a bright light in our neighborhood. She ALWAYS stopped to chat. She was ALWAYS smiling. She was ALWAYS friendly and kind. Our hearts are broken for your family and send prayers for hope and healing.

“ I met Frank & Barbara through travel softball. Barbara always greeted my daughter Rebekah and I with a pleasant smile and kind words. Barbara has a sweet spirit and you could see how much she loved her family. Barbara’s daughter took after her for sure. A wonderful family and my heart, thoughts and prayers are with the Lecuona family. May God’s peace be with them and I pray the Holy Spirit comforts them during this time. We love the Lecuona family.
