“ Dawn, we are so sorry for your loss. Rest knowing that your mother is in heaven with the angels and at peace. She left behind a lovely daughter (and family) who is a true angel on Earth to have loved and cared for her as you did. She knew your entire family loved and cared about her. If we can do anything to comfort you at this tough time, please let us know. Tony and I are always available. Your family is in our prayers.

“ Dawn, my precious friend, she fought the good fight for as long as she could. Now she is home with Jesus and those loved ones that have gone before... but she is not gone from you. A Mother's love is eternal. You will feel it when you need it most. Love can do amazing things, and there is none stronger than a Mother's love for her child. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family through this difficult time. You know my shoulders are broad and are here for you. I love you Dawn. God bless you always. ~PattyKay

“ Mr Jack, Dawn, and all the sons of Ms Barbara, I give you my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your wife and mother. Words cannot express the sadness I feel for you because I know how hard it is to lose a Mother. We cry not for the person leaving but for ourselves for we are so lost without them. Although we know we will see them again, we mourn for ourselves. My prayers and love are with you.

“ I falter looking for words of condolences. It's hard to say "I'm sorry" because I know she's with the Lord yet I know your hearts break over having to say good-bye. Barbara was a wonderful person and always treated me well. You will miss her terribly, it's never easy to lose your mother. I pray God's love is real to you during this sad time and that His grace and strength super-abounds as you deal with things in the coming weeks. Love you all.
