“ Dear Joan, Kelly & family: I just now read about Barry and am so saddened to hear about Barry. I am praying for you and all your family. It is so hard to put into words what I need to say, but I feel your pain. I hope you know I am here for you if any of you ever need me, night or day! God bless you all, I will keep you all in my prayers!

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family at this time of sorrow! Barry will be missed and will leave behind a legacy of many great memories! It was an honor to know Barry and to know that when you left his side, you left with a smile on your face! His wonderful sense of humor and disposition was something to treasure!! May you each be blessed with comfort during the healing process and keep his memories close to your heart!!

“ I am sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with you. Job 14:14,15, Job ask "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again..... You(God) will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes God has a yearning to bring back to life all those in the memorial tombs, into a peaceful earth with no sickness. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:29; Isaiah 33:24) I hope this will bring you comfort and hope.
