“ What a beautiful and personal service for Ben today. I have no doubt he witnessed it and was so pleased. Ben was so dear to so many of us and our grief and happy memories help unite us all - and we will continue to carry him in our hearts and with us in our daily lives, forever. He truly was a gift to us all. Keeping Mandi, Lennon, Brady and the rest of Ben's beloved friends and family in our daily prayers. I wanted to share the words from my devotional today (which I turned to right before Ben's service): 'You long to be anxious for nothing. You long for the fruit of the Spirit. But how do you bear this fruit? Try harder? No, hang tighter.' Amen. I pray that with God's help, we're all able to do just that.

“ Dear Campbell family, I was so very sorry to hear of Ben's passing. All those many years ago that I taught Ben on Sunday morning, seem like just yesterday. He always had such a sweet smile, even he he had been up to something with his "group". I always thought of them as my alphabet boys since their names all started with the 1st 4 letters of the alphabet. More recently, I saw him at the ball field coaching the team playing my grandson. I know you will miss him terribly but Heaven now has his sweet smile and that is a comfort. Love and sympathy to all of you.
