“ Oh, Barb, Teresa, Christian and Family,

Sooo very, very, very sorry to hear about Ben, he will be missed so very much.

Very talented, artistic, impish (had to add this, as this was Ben!!), funny, caring, joking, loving and a loved person, Heaven will know and take notice when he enters, I am sure.

He will now light up Heaven with his forever smiling face, his wonderful and warm personality, and sharing his abundant love to all there. Every minute he will be looking down on all of you with his huge smiles, twinkling eyes and watching over you.

Barring anything unforeseen myself medically or weather-wise, I hope to see all of you at the Memorial Service (Rich will not be able to attend, but sends his love).

Holding all of you tenderly in our hearts, thoughts and prayers,

Pat and Rich
