

Benjamin Daniel Weyant

August 18, 1989 - October 3, 2011

Benjamin Daniel Weyant

Mr. Ben Weyant, 22, was taken by angels into the waiting arms of Jesus and his Heavenly Father, October 3, 2011. Since the age of 7 he had fought a courageous battle with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, but God have him the final victory, a new and perfect body.

Ben was born August 18, 1989 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to Brad & Doretha Weyant. He is preceded in death by sister Christina Suzanne Weyant and grandparents Howard & Betty Weyant.

Ben's family moved to Newnan, GA when he was 4 years old and he attended Canongate Elementary, Madras Middle School and graduated in 2008 from Northgate High School as an honor student and a member of the National Honor Society. He also attended the University of West Georgia.

Even though Ben was greatly hindered by physical limitations, he never let that stop him from doing the things he loved. Music was a big part of his life and singing, in particular. He was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church of Newnan and enjoyed his high school years being a member of the Senior High Choir. He was able to travel with his choir to many places in the United States. In 2006 the choir traveled to New Orleans and Pearlinton, Mississippi to help a church that had been destroyed by Hurricane Katrina. The next year the choir participated in Youth Cue and joined many high school church choirs from around the U.S. to make a 300 voice choir which performed at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. Of all his experiences with his choir the most exciting was a tour in Europe. Senior High Choir traveled for 11 days and had concerts in Germany, Czech Republic, Austria and Switzerland. The place he enjoyed most was Salzburg, Austria. The choir was able to sing at Mirabelle Gardens where parts of the movie, The Sound of Music, had been filmed. Since 2008, Ben has been a member of the First Baptist Church Sanctuary Choir.

Ben would want everybody to know that he loved sports and even though he could not participate physically himself, he could root louder than anyone for his beloved Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets. He loved to go to the Jackets football games and last Saturday watched them beat N.C. State from his hospital bed. His cry was Go Jackets!!! What a year they have given him so far!!!

The most important thing that Ben would want everyone to know was how much he loved God. He had a very strong faith and knew that one day His Father would take him home to Heaven. He had been studying about Heaven in his college summer Bible study. One book that meant a lot to him the past few weeks was Heaven Is For Real. He knew that one day he, too, would see the wonderful things that Colton had seen in Heaven. Ben's testimony to all is to love the Lord God with all your heart and your soul and with all your strength.

“ I have many fond memories of Ben as a precious little boy in my Kindergarten class. I know you will miss him but I pray Jesus will give you peace as you think of Ben being able to run and play again as he did then.

“ Brad & Doretha, We are sadden about your son. Our hearts and prayers go out to you both. We cannot imagine the pain and desolation you are feeling at this moment and and what you will in the months and years to come, we do know that the Lord understands and will help you both each step of the way. Even though he will be greatly missed by you both and hundred of others, we praise the Lord that we know where he is today - in the arms of our precious Lord. Our prayers are with you, especially this afternoon.

“ Brad and Doretha, thank you so much for the gift of your son. His life shone so brightly and he touched so many of our hearts. I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I will continue to pray for you during this time. I just wanted to give you a few words of encouragement from the book of Lamentations. In 3:21-24, Jeremiah writes "But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, 'therefore I will hope in him.'"

“ Even though Ben had physical limitations, his spirit seemed to always soar without any limits. He used his strong spirit to inspire those he knew (including my son Andrew). If everyone, with or without physical limitations, would use their spirit as Ben used his, then this world would be a significantly better place. The Bellisle family is praying for you to feel a peace which can only come from the awesome God which Ben embraced. We pray you can find comfort in knowing you have been Godly parents even through the hard times of Ben's life. You gave him the guidance which has taken him to a place where he will have no more limitations. The Bellisle family

“ To Ben's family and friends, I was so sorry to read about Ben's death . I know how it hurts when a loved one dies, especially one so young, my heart goes out to you. Please accept my sincere condolences. May you be comforted as I was by our Heavenly Father's loving promise that he will reunite us with our dear loved ones, by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future (Acts 24:15;Psalms 37:11,29) What a happy reunion that will be. Learning what the Bible really teaches has aided many to cope during these stressful times. It is my hope that your fond memories of "Ben" and God's precious promises warm your hearts and help make your present pain a little easier to bear. Again my deepest sympathy to you.
