“ I work with Amy Johnson, she sent me Bertha's obituary and it contained a link to this site. I would like to express my condolences and confirm what others have said. She has transitioned to the next step and is waiting comfortably for the rest of us in God's house.

“ Margie and Howard, We know that your heart is breaking at this time and there are no magic words to help that type of pain. Just know that we love you and will continue to pray for your peace. Big Mama will be missed very much. We loved her so much. We are so grateful that we had her for such a long time and have so many memories with her. She was a wonderful person with a big heart. She was a wonderfully compassionate person with a zest for life. Although she is gone from us physically, we have precious memories to help fill the void. She is not gone forever. However, she is simply waiting for us on the other side. Love you soo much. Allen and Louise
