“ Aunt Bessie will be missed dearly. Such a shame that some would get in the way of others from grieving in the proper manner by not making one known of her passing or of her falling ill prior.

Aunt Bessie was my moms only living family left on her Dads side. She just now found out about Bessie late yesterday when she tried to call several times and line was busy and then disconnected. It is a shame that no one let my mother know. People need to grieve in a proper way to get through death. She loved Aunt Bessie dearly and will be missed by my mom.

“ I never met Mrs. Savitch, but passed her home daily...I would wave at her as she walked her dog....even after I didn't see her outside, I would always say hello as I passed by..
