“ I know that my grandmother, Annie Cochran is anxiously waiting with a smile on her face, for her best friend, Ms.Bessie. They were the best of friends for years and our family loved The Thrower family. Ms. Bessie will be laid to rest on my grandmother's birthday tomorrow. They both would have been 104. I know my grandmother will just love her birthday present from Ms. Bessie. My prayers are with all of you, hoping for peace and comfort during this time.

“ For the past five years four of us men have visited nursing homes in the Newnan area.

Rodney Millians (Unity Baptist), Gary Britt and Joe Reddoch (Elim Baptist), and Rev. Norman Goss (Hope Memorial Baptist)

Bessie always enjoyed our visits as we made small talk and read scripture and prayed with her before we left. When I would ask, "How to pray for her", she would answer, "Pray for my legs so I can walk".

Bessie's mind was sharper than any of ours and we were thankful for the conversations. In the past six months I could see some changes in her being able to commutate but she was always pleasant and upbeat. She loved God's Word and was always ready for prayer.

I know where she is, and I will see her soon. All she has done is changed her address.

“ So glad to hear "Miss" Bessie" finally making it to heaven!! She had always told my Dad, James Ferrell, she wanted him to be a pall bearer at her funeral and they would laugh!! No doubt he has found her and once again talking over old times. That sweet lady always said I could sashay better than anyone she knew! The world has been a better place with "Miss Bessie" in it. Prayers to family & friends for peace & memories.
Pam Clemons.
