“ Betty was a delight to work with through the years. I was blessed in that our paths crossed many times. If someone needed an appraisal in our area, I would always give them her name. She was excellent at her craft, and always so kind to me. She will be missed. I am praying that God will give Bob, Tom and all the family healing, comfort and peace as only He can. With Deepest Sympathy, Bob Barfield

“ Betty was a wonderful member of our Carnegie Writers' group. She always wore a smile and was a valuable participant in both our discussions and writing assignments. I'm sorry i'll never get to read the final chapter of her book. Perhaps she is already writing in heaven.

“ I offer my deepest condolences for your loss. Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of someone we love. However, God promises us that there will come a victory over death. The Bible repeatedly speaks about the elimination of death (Isaiah 26:19, John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15) and God's promise of everlasting life (John 17:3). So the battle against death is not a hopeless one. When that day arrives, death will truly be brought to nothing. Never again will anyone wonder, 'Does death end it all?'
