“ I have missed spending time with you, going to church, running errands, shopping, doctor appointments, trips, holidays, meals out and singing. I am heartbroken that I couldn't be with you when you took your heavenly flight or attend your service. The family is in my thoughts and prayers. Love you Betty. Say Hi to Mom and Dad for me. Until we meet again

“ Aunt Betty, I wished we could have spent more time together. It seems like since Grandma Stacy died, the family has split in all different directions. Just know that I thought of you often and loved you dearly! To my cousins: I love all of you very much! My condolences to you, all. Lot of big hugs and kisses. RIP, BETTYJO!
