“ So sorry to hear of the death of Betty. I went to church with her and her mom and dad years ago at Mt. Carmel. Had visited her several times at Wesley Woods until Coronavirus changed things. She was one sweet lady and always had a smile for everyone. I'm sure she is rejoicing with her parents Mrs. Ruth & Mr. Hoke. She will be missed but has a better home with Jesus.

“ Miss Betty was a good friend of my mother for many years even before I was born. She was a sweet lady, and my memories of her are fond ones. I am glad my mother and her got to visit a few times in the past year after my mother also moved to Wesley Woods too.
