“ Bob, You have the condolences of the Kendle family. My wife always remembers Betty coming up to her after our wedding and saying, "Now, I'm your Aunt Betty!" We also remember the time we stopped at your house while you lived in Overland Park. Betty's geneological book was a labor of love that will live on -- I've looked at it several times in the last few years for information. Both of you are special people and I've always looked forward to seeing you. Betty was a fun loving spirit who I know will be missed. I'll see you Thursday.

“ We are so sorry. I will always remember Betty as full of life. She loved playing cards on Monday nights, going out with the ladies for breakfast, lunch and shopping. I remember one time several of us went to breakfast, then to the Sock Shop in Griffin. Betty said she would like to find a book store to buy Bob the book 1776, but there was no book store in Griffin. I told her I would take her downtown to Scotts book store in Newnan when we got back, but we all decided to shop downtown, and went into several stores. Betty got her book. She had no trouble keeping up with we "younger" ones. We will miss Betty a lot. Our Love, Sharon and Jim Norton Part of the Heritage Ridge Family
