“ I never knew your son but he seemed like a wonderful child nplease know that I am sorry for your loss and it seemed everyone loved him he even has soft hoodies if you want to get rid of them you can send them to me.

The world never ceases to leave me dumbfounded. Do you really think the family would send their deceased loved ones clothing to you? That is so weird. Find something better to do with your time.

“ First off, I want to say I'm sorry for your loss. I also want to tell you, that a friend and I are doing the best we can on research. We will work very hard to find your son's killer. I am not that old, but I promise you we will try. Again, sorry for the loss.

“ I'd like to say that I'm very sorry for you all's loss and hope you find justice. Blake Chappell was among many friends I've made when staying with my mom and dad in Lovejoy. His brother Michael was also among that group of friends. Me and my sisters cherish the times spent joking, playing, laughing and talking with him. He was always able to make me laugh and feel better even when I tried to act unsocial and did not feel like being bothered. He means so much to a lot of people and a lot of people feels sad by this loss, but though we've known him for only 3yrs we still feel a sting of sorrow. Yet we feel good knowing he's in the full care of our God and that he will help us heal. I have no regrets in knowing Blake and thankful that my last encounter with Blake was full of cheerfulness and Blake's beautiful smile. I hope you're doing ok Michael and even if you don't remember me my love and prayers go to your whole family. God bless. :)

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Chappell family and also share a comforting promise from God's word at Revelation 21:3,4 which says: With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: Look the tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ Blake not a day has gone by that I am not truly consumed with the fact you are no longer here. We all miss you so much, and wish every minute that we had more time to hear you laughter, jokes, see your smile, hug your your neck, and just enjoy the amazing young man you had become. Please trust that we as your family will not stop, rest, or truly feel you are at peace until the person or persons that took you from us is caught and brought to justice. I love you with all my heart, and we as a family are truly heartbroken. Please know that we will be here for you Mom and Chris and assure that justice is served. We will always keep your memory alive, and you are in our thoughts everyday. We love you sweet one, miss you, and will see that someday you truly rest in peace. I love you! Love Aunt Tonya and Joey.

“ blake man i love you. i miss you. my only wish is that everyone reading this will reach out to theyre loved ones and express theyre love. parents new and old we need to help preventing this. a child is a product of its environment and for anyone to do this was raised in a sick environment. please take the time to love your child and family because in the end thats all we have.....
