“ God bless each of you in this time of sorrow. BJ and Jeanette were our best friends and we share your sorrow. I have been thinking of the many, many good times the four of us have had and the three of us also. All of the memories have become more precious. Just remember, we will meet them someday and the joy will begin again. God Bless you all.

“ I'm sorry, Mary and Gene, your father has gone ahead of you. Even though my father was 93 when he died, it was a sad time for me, but I focused on the things about him that made me laugh. That helped me...perhaps it will help you. I care and God cares. May He put His comforting arms around you.
