“ Troy,
Just last week you were looking down at Savannah longing for days gone by when your daughter was small and saying how much you missed her. Well buddy, you no longer have to miss her because you will forever be with her.
You are sorely missed by Wayne and I.

“ Talking about be at a lost for words Brothers-in-law that is where I am ! We have been through so many up downs round and. Rounds some good some not so good some still left to be known but non the less you are and will always be my brother in law ! We been support to one another in ether work and family or just there to listen to one another with or without a solution ! I remember the last time i seen you and it was one of those situations where you had came got me and I am forever still grateful for that day ! I see and hear the hurt around me that your passing has brought to those you loved and my promise to you brother is I will do my best to help and comfort the ones left that you loved! Know that you was loved and cared about by my family and know that we know that you loved my sister and that you would want to know that she still and will be ok !Once again Brother You have My Promise ! Love ya Marvin
