“ Oh my goodness, Aunt Be Jo!!! 🥰🥰🥰 To hear you and your sisters sing “Somebody’s Knocking”!! As a child, I recall being so amazed!! The camping... oh my Itcha tucknee Springs!!! ❤️❤️ The holiday gatherings at Granny’s and hearing your voice over everyone’s, whether laughing YOUR loudest laugh or your commanding to be heard, voice, I knew that was you!!! The night I drove you to Mama’s, from Aunt B’s, on Lambert, in Jax and you were holding on, calling me by my WHOLE NAME!!! 🤔❤️❤️❤️ I could write nearly a book, on all the memories, but mostly, I appreciate and admire the love you showed the family.. I will miss you.. I love you!!! ❤️❤️❤️🙏

“ Words will never be able to say how much our hearts hurt without you. I can only pray that God will let you be as much of a Guardian Angel to my girls as you were an Angel to them here on Earth. We love you so very much ❤️❤️
